our coffee

We offer an alternating assortment of distinctive single origin coffee beans and exclusive Kero crafted blends Using our modest production methods we're able to approach each individual cup as an opportunity to elevate and preserve our high quality taste

see products

sustainability

Here at Kero, we care about the environment. With the advent of climate change and rising global temperature, we at Kero Coffee Company wanted to ensure that we did our part. That's why we ensure that no matter what our coffee beans are ethically sourced from eco-friendly farms around the world.

how we roast

At Kero, coffee roasting is our artform. We take deep care and calculations in order to roast the perfect bean for the perfect cup. That's what makes our coffee different than other brands. Since each bean is roasted with love, the resulting cup of coffee is a cup of love too.
